Property Overview

Introducing a standout investment opportunity in the thriving Lincoln area, this 6,684 SF building comprises 2 units and is currently at 100% occupancy. Built in 1997 and renovated in the same year, the property is well-positioned to capitalize on high consumer traffic. Boasting city utilities, an I-20 interchange, and the option for the seller to scrape and prep, this property presents a strategic and flexible opportunity for retail and free-standing building investors. Its prime location on the main traffic corridor of Honda and near the Talladega Speedway exit on I-20 adds to its allure, making it an ideal choice for investors seeking a strong presence in a progressive and high-traffic area.
