NE Tarrant/Alliance Submarket Summary

NE Tarrant/Alliance Industrial

North East Tarrant/Alliance is one of Dallas-Fort Worth's primary industrial nodes, featuring some of North Texas' newest, most efficient warehouse buildings. Hillwood's 26,000-acre master-planned AllianceTexas development has made an outsized impact on the area.

NE Tarrant/Alliance ranks among the most active in terms of new development with 49.9 million SF added in the past decade. The pace of construction is rolling over with 1.0 million SF of development currently underway. Meanwhile, demand is working to keep up with supply as tenants moved into 6.0 million over the past year. New tenants range from 3PL companies like ITS Logistics or DHL Supply Chain to large retail distribution networks like Dollar General's newly opened million-square-foot center. Users seeking vast swaths of open space built to modern specifications have no shortage of options in this submarket.

While by no means the highest in the Dallas-Fort Worth market, NE Tarrant/Alliance has seen vacancies increase in recent quarters due to supply-side pressures and a lackluster absorption period in the first quarter of 2024.

This was partly due to a significant 788,000 SF vacancy in the Alliance Gateway industrial park. Walmart, which had previously occupied all of Building 11, moved out of its space to consolidate regional distribution efforts in a new facility in Lancaster.

The submarket benefits from enhanced connectivity through air transportation provided by Perot Field Fort Worth Alliance Airport. This airport is the second-largest in Dallas-Fort Worth and serves the distinction of being the world's first dedicated industrial airport. Amazon Air has established a regional hub here to improve delivery services for Prime members and expand their existing national distribution networks. Situated on the airport's west side, the Fort Worth Air Hub encompasses a package sorting and air cargo facility. Another primary demand driver, the Alliance Global Logistics Hub (built around the BNSF Alliance Intermodal Facility), is one of the nation's premier inland ports near the airport. Solid economic underpinnings and the unique transportation infrastructure provided by rail, road, and air will serve the submarket well in the future.

- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement.
