Lakeland is a city in Central Florida. Located along Interstate 4 east of Tampa and west of Orlando, it is the most populous city and county seat in Polk County, Florida. As of the 2020 U.S. Census Bureau release, the city had a population of 112,641 Lakeland is a principal city of the Lakeland–Winter Haven Metropolitan Statistical Area. The town is sometimes locally referred to by the nickname "Swan City" due to its sizeable population of swans, all of whom are descendants of two mute swans given to Lakeland by Queen Elizabeth II in 1957.

Lakeland is the birthplace of Publix, a supermarket chain.

Downtown Lakeland is a vital and enjoyable place for residents and visitors. It has been dubbed "Lakeland's living room" and truly embodies the community spirit of Lakeland. There are quaint shops, casual restaurants, pubs, craft breweries and fine-dining experiences to be found in and around the historic brick buildings that surround the historic Munn Park town square.

Lakeland is also strong on the business front and boasts a number of notable corporate and mom-and-pop shops and restaurants. The community is the corporate home to Publix Supermarkets, one of the nations leading grocers, and Saddle Creek Logistics. Lakeland also houses regional hubs or distribution centers for GEICO Insurance, Amazon, Rooms to Go, Well Dyne, Advanced Auto Parts, Southern Wine & Spirits, FEDEX Corporate Services, O'Reily Auto Parts, Lockheed Martin and Pepperidge Farm. Visit the Lakeland Chamber of Commerce to learn more about the many local shops and restaurants that are an integral part of our community!

POLK COUNTY

LOCATED IN THE GEOGRAPHIC CENTER OF FLORIDA AND ALONG CENTRAL FLORIDA'S I-4 CORRIDOR, POLK COUNTY IS LESS THAN 40 MINUTES FROM BOTH TAMPA AND ORLANDO.

Close to Central Florida Attractions And far enough away that they are not a distraction.

Less than 35 minutes to Walt Disney World

Less than 40 minutes to Universal Studios, SeaWorld and Busch Gardens

Less than 60 minutes to Gulf and Atlantic Beaches

Polk County comprises the Lakeland–Winter Haven Metropolitan Statistical Area

Polk County has over 2,000 square miles of land and water, Polk is the 4th largest county in the state. With access to 10 million people within 100 miles and a fiveyear growth rate that's surpassing the state's, there's no question that Polk County is on its way to becoming a large-scale economic force.

Polk County is well served by Interstate 4 and both US Highway 27 and State Road 60. Interstate 4 runs east and west between Interstates 75 (west coast) and 95 (east coast). Running 481 miles between Tallahassee and Miami, US Highway 27 is a divided highway (mostly) and is a great route for visitors planning a unique road trip through the state.

From healthcare and tourism to advanced manufacturing and logistics, nearly every major industry in Polk County has benefitted from a steady wave of economic an d commercial development that has sparked the start of a new era for the central Florida community.

Polk County is home to one public university, one state college, and four private universities. One Fortune 500 company, Publix Super Markets, has headquarters in the county.

New details released about Orlando Health Lakeland Highlands Hospital

Orlando, FL (October 20, 2022) – When the Orlando Health Lakeland Highlands Hospital opens in 2026, it will open with 302 inpatient beds. That's more than double the originally announced opening bed count of 136 beds.

"Following additional review, Orlando Health determined that it can best meet the healthcare needs of the Lakeland and greater Polk County communities by opening a hospital with more inpatient capacity than we originally announced," said Jamal Hakim, MD, COO, Orlando Health. "As one of the state's fastest growing communities, Orlando Health recognizes that it needs to accelerate its delivery of high-quality, outcomes-based healthcare to these communities. We are excited about our revised plan and its many benefits for the community."

In addition to the increased bed count, on opening day, the hospital will also feature nearly 30 ICU/progressive care rooms, 16 patient rooms to support a women's birthing program, shelled space for a future neonatal intensive care unit (NICU), a 48-bed emergency department and additional medical and support services including imaging, lab, pharmacy, dining and gift shop, among others.

ORLANDO HEALTH LAKELAND

"Located at the southeast corner where the Polk Parkway meets Lakeland Highlands Road, the Orlando Health Lakeland Highlands Hospital will be a stunning 7-story facility set on an attractive, welcoming campus," said Matt Taylor, senior vice president of asset strategy for Orlando Health. "Our goal is to always provide convenient access to the healthcare services so greatly needed by the community, on a campus our patients and visitors can easily navigate and use."

The hospital, which is approved for up to 360 beds, is slated for a summer 2026 opening.

About Orlando Health

Orlando Health, headquartered in Orlando, Florida, is a not-for-profit healthcare organization with $8 billion of assets under management that serves the southeastern United States.

Founded more than 100 years ago, the healthcare system is recognized around the world for Central Florida's only pediatric and adult Level One Trauma program as well as the only state-accredited Level Two Adult Trauma Center in the St. Petersburg region. It is the home of the nation's largest neonatal intensive care unit under one roof, the only system in the southeast to offer open fetal surgery to repair the most severe forms of spina bifida, the site of an Olympic athlete training facility and operator of one of the largest and highest performing clinically integrated networks in the region. Orlando Health has pioneered life-changing medical research and its Graduate Medical Education program hosts more than 350 residents and fellows. The 3,200-bed system includes 10 award-winning hospitals, 9 hospital based ERs, and 7 free-standing emergency rooms; rehabilitation services, cancer and heart institutes, imaging and laboratory services, wound care centers, physician offices for adults and pediatrics, skilled nursing facilities, an in-patient behavioral health facility, home healthcare services in partnership with LHC Group, and urgent care centers in partnership with FastMed Urgent Care. More than 4,200 physicians, representing more than 100 medical specialties and subspecialties have privileges across the Orlando Health system, which employs more than 23,000 team members. In FY21, Orlando Health served more than 160,000 inpatients and 3.6 million outpatients. During that same time period, Orlando Health provided approximately $648 million in total value to the communities it serves in the form of charity care, community benefit programs and services, community building activities and more.
